Policy Statement

Honorary awards are subject to approval by the Honorary Selection Committee. In making its recommendations for the honorary awards and in considering the kinds of people to be honored, it will focus on the following categories as deserving of recognition :

People of academic prominence in the broad fields of research and scholarship of particular interest to the University.

Entrepreneurs and others distinguished in business and industry.

Those who have contributed with distinction to the University; such people might also fall into one or more of categories (1) to (3) above.

Candidates for honorary awards may be nominated by Board of Directors, Presidents, senior management or private citizens. Approved nominations from the above shall be awarded an honour from the University.

Lastly, commencement speakers shall not be automatically nominated to receive an honorary degree, nor should nominees be contacted prior to the Honorary Degree Committee's consideration.
